Presentation of your excursion around French art in pastry and bakery

Let's go on a discovery of French pastries and bakeries, globally known and recognized symbols of French gastronomy. From Bakery to Pastry shop, your guide will recount not only the history of the cakes, breads, chocolates and other sweets which are among the most famous of French pastries, but he will also show you the way in which this gastronomic history is deliciously intertwined with the history of France: its kings, emperors, leaders, its revolution, its people. Who would have thought? Croissants and macarons will lead you on a discovery of Marie Antoinette, of Napoleon but also of the France of our day!

Feeding the soul and feeding the body are one and the same for the French, you will delight along the way in several tastings in the most renowned names in Parisian patisserie which we will keep as a surprise. You will thus have five gourmet stops along the way, and your guide will be happy to explain throughout your tasting, the unique attributes of the pastry that you are nibbling on.
