Valid from March to October 2019 from 1 to 8 persons

Your program:

Day 1: Arrival in Nice

Transfer from the airport to Nice and check in at your hotel ELLINGTON 4 *.

Free lunch

Afternoon: discovery of Nice with your driver guide

Private excursion, half day, (4 hours)

The client will discover the famous Promenade des Anglais, known for its beaches and luxury hotels. It is also the place where Nice people meet, walk, run or ride a bike. The city of Nice welcomed in the 19th and 20th century English and Russian aristocrats (including Queen Victoria of the United Kingdom and the Tsar of Russia). From this glamorous past, Nice has inherited beautiful mansions, mansions and private palaces (the district of Cimiez and Mont Boron). We can also show the impressive Russian Orthodox Cathedral in Nice (the largest in Western Europe). When visiting the Cimiez district, the client can visit the Henri Matisse Museum or the Marc Chagall National Museum (optional and at the client's expense). We will also head to Mont Boron Hill. From this place, the panoramic view of Nice is breathtaking and it is a great place to do a photo session. We will discover the port of Nice. The latter was designed to accommodate both luxury boats and ferries linking Nice to Corsica. We will finally arrive at the heart of Nice, Old Nice, to discover the Flower Market. For a very long time, this market is also that of fruits and vegetables (open every day except Mondays, the days of the antique market). The customer will also be able to taste Niçois specialties on this market: the Socca, the Pissaladière or the Pan Bagnat. Local experience guaranteed!

Day 2: The hinterland of the Côte d'Azur with your driver guide

Private day trip (8 hours)

- Discover the program

This private excursion takes participants to the villages and hills of the hinterland of the Côte d'Azur. First there is the visit of the city of Grasse, the world capital of perfumes. As an option, the customer can choose to visit the Fragonard perfumery (free entrance) or the International Perfume Museum (at the customer's expense). Then go to the village of Gourdon (an eagle's nest), located in the mountainous part of the Côte d'Azur, with a breathtaking view of the Alps and the sea. The tour continues to Tourrettes-sur-Loup, an authentic and beautiful village, unaffected by mass tourism. Participants will finally discover Saint-Paul-de-Vence, a medieval village and remain in the past painters such as Marc Chagall. Optional: visit the Maeght Foundation in this last village (at the customer's expense), a private gallery that has a large collection of art: Chagall, Miro, Giacometti, etc

Day 3: Cannes and Antibes

Free morning

Free lunch

Afternoon: Discovery of Antibes and Cannes

Private excursion, half day (4 hours)

Discover the program

Guests will discover Antibes, a beautiful port city, surrounded by walls dating back to the 16th century. In the mornings, there is "Provençal Market" with local culinary specialties, fruits and vegetables. Antibes is also one of the largest marinas in Europe and hosts on its "billionaires platform" the most prestigious private boats in the world. Optionally, visit the Pablo Picasso Museum in Antibes, this painter's former studio (at the client's expense). We will then go through the coastal road and very picturesque of the peninsula of Cap d'Antibes and the seaside resorts of Juan-les-Pins and Golfe-Juan. Visit Cannes: discover the famous Boulevard de la Croisette, with its hotels and luxury shops. Stop at the Palais des Festivals (outside) for photos taken on the steps (red carpet) that rise the stars during the Festival.
