Day 1

You meet your guide in the lobby of your hotel and he gives you the detailed program of your stay in the region.

In the morning, an independent champagne producer welcomes you at his property. He shows you his vineyard, his cellars and tells you about his savoir-faire. Right after the visit, an oenologist teaches you the art of tasting Champagne. You get to know the diversity of grapes, you learn how to differentiate a “cuvée” from another and how to identify the different flavors and blending.

Excellence is on the menu for lunch. Enjoy the finest of French gastronomy paired with refined French wines at Le Parc des Crayères, a two Michelin-star restaurant.

After lunch, you plunge into the heart of one of the greatest Champagne Houses. Enjoy the particular atmosphere of the chalk cellars where millions of Champagne bottles are aging. There, you discover what makes this wine so unique before tasting the “House's prestige cuvée”.

Later on, your guide invites you to discover Reims city-center. He will tell you everything about the Cathedral of Reims, where 19 kings of France were crowned.

At the end of the day, get prepared for a cooking workshop with a famous chef from the region. In the well equipped kitchen located next to the cathedral, discover the chef's secrets. After the workshop, you will enjoy the fruit of your labour during a 3 course dinner with 3 Champagne “cuvées”.
