Explore your tour:

This morning, your private guide will pick you up in a comfortable car from your hotel in Strasbourg and drive you to the Alsace Wine Route for the rest of the day where you will marvel at the beauty and diversity of the landscape and will stroll through picturesque villages surrounded by vineyards where you can admire the traditional half-timbered houses and their balconies, overflowing with flowers.

You will start with the visit of Obernai, a charming medieval town and then continue with a visit of the renowned Spindler's wood marquetry in Boersch, a famous symbol of arts & crafts in Alsace. Jean-Charles Spindler, the 3rd generation of this family of artists, will open the doors of his private little museum just for you. In Mittelbergheim, a superb village with a characteristic Renaissance style architecture, ranked among the 'Most Beautiful Villages of France', you will do a wine-tasting at a reputed winery together with the owner who will guide you in his cellar dating from 17th century. You will taste the Zotzenberg Sylvaner Grand Cru, the only Sylvaner Grand Cru in the world!

Alternatively, you will visit Riquewihr, the gem of the Alsace Wine Route, also ranked among the 'Most Beautiful Villages of France'.

You will have a nice lunch at a typical and authentic restaurant on the Wine Route.

Naturally, you will also visit Colmar, the Alsatian wine capital, where strolling is so enjoyable. You will discover the Little Venice area, and its historical and architectural heritage. You will also be able to visit the New Unterlinden Museum located in a former Dominican convent which hosts one of the most famous European art masterpieces from the Middle Ages, the Isenheim Altarpiece dating from 1512-1516.
