Depart: Annecy, Chambéry, Aix-les-Bains, Geneva, Lyon or Grenoble

Highlights of your tour:

- Discover the Abymes and Apremont vineyards and their unique grape variety, la Jacquère.
- An excursion that combines superb scenery with a rich cultural history.
- Wine and cheese tasting with an educational twist, including explanations in the heart of the vines.
- Accompanied by a qualified mountain guide and specialist in French wine tasting walks.

Your guide for the Savoie Mont-Blanc area will pick you up at your hotel in Annecy, Chambéry or Aix-les-Bains, for half a day of exploration in the heart of the Chartreuse National Park.

Our local expert will teach you the secrets of our wines and vineyards, acquaint you with the rich history of the area and introduce you to the beautiful scenery that surrounds these vineyards, such as Saint André Lake and the mountain ranges of the Alps.

Your Program

We shall meet you at your hotel, then take a short drive to the Massif de la Chartreuse. There we will undertake a 1 and a half hour guided walk following a beautiful circular route, overlooking the valley and facing several mountain ranges.

After the walk, we'll go by car and tour the vineyards at the foothills of Mont Granier, possibly stopping at the church Our Lady of Myans, unique in several ways, this church is a place of pilgrimage for many. It's history is long and tells the story of our ancestors.

To finish off this great half day tour, you will taste a range of local wine and cheese in the heart of a winery.

All great things have to come to an end, and so we shall transfer you safely back to your hotel at the end of your half day.
